Sharjah Tourism Innovation Hackathon 2026

HACKATHON CODE OF CONDUCT

The Sharjah Tourism Innovation Hackathon is dedicated to providing a safe, inclusive, and inspiring environment for all participants. We expect all attendees to uphold the highest standards of professionalism and respect throughout the event.

1. Respect and Inclusion

Treat all participants with courtesy and respect - discrimination or harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.

Racist, sexist, or exclusionary jokes and language are inappropriate for this event.

Be mindful of others' personal space and boundaries.

2. Collaboration and Fair Play

Collaboration is encouraged, but plagiarism or presenting work that is not your own is strictly prohibited.

Teams must consist only of registered participants and must develop projects entirely during the hackathon period.

Use of open-source code and tools is permitted as long as they are properly credited.

Respect intellectual property - do not copy, use, or present others' ideas without consent.

3. Professionalism

Treat mentors, judges, sponsors, and organizers with the utmost respect.

Take time to engage with sponsors, mentors, judges and organizers - they are here to support you and make the event possible.

Refrain from any disruptive behavior or language that could negatively affect others' experience.

Follow event timelines, instructions, and any safety guidelines shared by the organizing team.

4. Environment and Conduct

Keep your workspace tidy and respect shared resources and university property.

No illegal substances are permitted on premises.

Maintain a positive, collaborative, and constructive atmosphere.

If you encounter any issues, immediately contact an organizer or volunteer – they are here to help.

5. Data, Privacy, and Ethics

Use only publicly available or provided datasets unless you have explicit permission to use others.

Do not collect or share personal data without consent.

Projects that promote harm, discrimination, or unethical use of technology will not be accepted.

6. Consequences of Misconduct

Violations of this Code of Conduct may result in removal from the event, disqualification from prizes, and reporting to the participant's university or affiliated organization. Serious incidents may be escalated to campus authorities.

7. Reporting

If you experience or witness any behavior that violates this Code of Conduct:

- Contact an organizer or volunteer immediately.
- Reports will be handled promptly, confidentially, and with care.

8. Remember

This event is about learning, creativity, and community. Let's build, collaborate, and innovate – while treating everyone with dignity and respect.
